

TURN YOUR HANDWRITING INTO A FONT!

Think you've got a stylish scribble? The perfect penmanship? Handwriting like no other? Then quit hoarding and share it with the rest of us! The Scarborough Fair is looking for a unique font for the design of our 40th anniversary edition and we want you to give it to us!

Here's all the info you need to get going:

First you'll need to fill out the handwriting chart attached with this page. If you need another copy of the chart just visit www.scarboroughfair.ca

Secondly you'll need to follow the instructions included on the chart. They're very straight-forward. Be sure to use a clean, black pen or thin marker. Write clearly, take your time.

Once you've filled out the form, fill out the details below and drop the whole package off to us in our office (room SL201) on the second floor of the Student Centre. If the door's locked just slide it underneath or put it in the folder marked "FONT CONTEST." Please note that by signing the form below you hereby agree to the terms and conditions of the contest.

The deadline is THURSDAY FEBRUARY 5TH at 11:59pm

Name _____

Student Number _____

Phone Number _____

Email Address _____

Signature _____

Terms & Conditions: The Scarborough Fair is a student-run publication operating at the University of Toronto, Scarborough Campus. This contest is for currently enrolled part-time and full-time students only. This contest is free of charge and open to all students, including staff of the Scarborough Fair or other affiliated organizations. The Scarborough Fair will not be held liable for false submissions that result in copyright infringement, and will cooperate with the proper authorities in such a situation. By submitting to this contest, you hereby affirm that the handwriting attached is your own.

The Scarborough Fair

a simple idea, simply for ideas

www.scarboroughfair.ca

UTSC's only journal for the creative arts since 1969